I am honoured to announce the publication of the Volume 4, Issue 4 of "Brainwave: A Multidisciplinary Journal," published by Brainware University, West Bengal, India. Further, it is my pleasure to extend my heartfelt thanks to the members of the editorial board, editorial advisory board, honourable reviewers and the authors, whose papers have been accepted for publication in this journal. I am also grateful to other stakeholders, who were instrumental in ensuring timely publication of this issue of this journal.

The submitted articles have been peer reviewed by eminent reviewers in the concerned fields. I take this opportunity to mention that only those articles, which contain rich ideas of contemporary interest, are accepted for publication in this journal. Further, I am feeling proud to say that the journal is becoming increasingly popular with the authors day by day.

Conclusively, the priority of the journal is to publish those articles, which possess new contribution so as to enrich the literature. Thus, the novel contents of the journal in emerging areas are expected to prove beneficial to the researchers.
